

CONSULT

“After 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me. I went up in response to a revelation. Then I laid before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure that I was not running, or had not run, in vain.” Galatians 2:1-2

The consultations run by Faith2Share each year are the most high-profile and public aspect of our work. However, in reality they form part of a mesh of continual consulting and consultation which ranges from enquires emailed into the office to formal consultation processes run for organisations, groups, dioceses or mission bodies; such as the Lausanne-Orthodox Initiative. The consultancy process also feeds into other aspects of our work as the collaboration provides the opportunity for fellowship, the spark for mentoring and the challenge to train and resource.

Faith2Share provides this through:

- International Leadership Consultations
- Regional Consultations
- Depth Discipleship Consultations
- Individual Consultancy

A LEADER MUST CREATE HOPE

“Hope creates an aspirational factor among all the things that you’re trying to do in your organization, and it gives people a reason to commit. Hope suggests that the future will be better than the present, and that what we’re doing as an organization now will contribute toward creating that future.

Now, you can’t build hope without trust. You can’t build hope without stability. But trust and stability aren’t enough. You do need hope to draw people toward a better future and give them aspirations. And it’s a critical aspect of leadership right now.” Barry Conchie

Faith2Share offered a Depth Discipleship consultation for 30 leaders from six different regions across Nepal and from different denominations (offered in their own language). Using the training, materials and models they had received, they were able to adapt and offer a similar training event for different language groups in a remote part of the country – mostly using their own resources.

In Uganda, Faith2Share conducted a review of the partnership between the local Anglican diocese, a European diocese and an indigenous non-governmental organisation (NGO). This has led to an ongoing partnership with the diocese of Luweero as they develop their local mission outreach – with an ongoing network, resourcing, and relational link with the Diocesan Secretary and Faith2Share.

We asked network leaders: “In what ways has Faith2Share helped you personally in your ministry?”

“Faith2Share helped me to meet with other leaders through its Leadership Consultations. Faith2Share and its network members sponsored my flight to attend its Leadership Consultations in Bangkok and Addis Ababa. They taught me how to collaborate with others for effectiveness in mission.”
